Animals Have Four Legs

THE life and work of the spiritual pioneer, bringing to this earth new revelations of the Power of the Spirit of God, is never easy. Many a one has died of a broken heart. No true spiritual pioneer ever lives to see the full fruits of his labors. Invariably, if real truths of God are being brought to the earth, they have, at first, to sneak in in the garb of a burglar. They face hardships. They face trials. They face heartaches. But the true spiritual pioneer never fears these things. His faith is immovable. His trust is triumphant. He always wins in the long run.

One of the hardest things the spiritual leader has to do, is to bring to naught pagan superstitions which, for ages, have masqueraded as truths of God. And he must be faithful in this, too. He cannot shrink from his duty. If he does, he never would have been chosen by the Spirit of God for the work he is called upon to do. There are millions of people who, nominally, at least, have put a lot of faith in the name of Jesus Christ, and have looked upon this figure as being actually God Almighty. It is well known amongst the hundreds of thousands who have been in contact with this Movement, that such is not the case. It is equally well known that this complete story is an origination and a fabrication of the early Roman church. It can be abundantly proved to be false in its entirety.

Naturally, such statements as these are met with doubt on the part of those good trusting people who, anxious to find God, have turned to the church for such knowledge. They have all been disappointed, 'tis true, for the actual knowledge of the Spirit of God cannot be brought to anyone by an organization which, in itself, does not have the truths of God. Most certainly the religion of the Christian does not contain the truths of the Spirit of God. It is, I repeat, a pagan system of theology, originated in its entirety by the Roman Catholic church to which may be given the credit for bringing to this world, not the truths of the Spirit of God, but church-made theories and dogmas.

If I were to tell the average Protestant, or Catholic for that matter, that the reason there are four gospels is because animals have four legs, the tendency might be to say, "That fellow is crazy." But investigation reveals that this happens to be the exact reason we have four gospels—just simply because animals have four legs. It happened in this wise. Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons, was more responsible for the present canon of New Testament literature than was anyone else. Along about that time, in 1545 A.D., certain anonymous writings began to appear, and always in the hands of priests. No one knows where they came from, nor does anyone know who wrote these funny documents. We do know that they were completely anonymous, and always appeared in the hands of someone connected with the Catholic church.

Proof of the existence of these anonymous papers cannot be established, for if we ask the church now to prove the truth of the four gospels by showing us the original manuscripts, the church cannot do that. They tell us they were all lost, every one of them. No one has ever seen them, and insofar as there being any evidence whatsoever of their existence, there is none. Even if they did exist, they would prove nothing. The point here is that these four gospels were placed in the canon because animals have four legs. Irenaeus, in order to decide which of the many anonymous and mysterious manuscripts should be considered the "divinely inspired word of God," called together a council of about 180 priests and bishops of the Roman church. After having fist-fights and general arguments, a deciding vote was obtained. Bishop Irenaeus made the following statements, according to record of the council—"The earth has four corners, there are four great winds, animals have four legs, so we must have just four gospels."

Trusting Protestants have staked their souls on the truth and the veracity of these four gospels; yet we here have proof that the reason we have them is because animals have four legs, and this is what we have been asked to believe is the "divinely inspired bible," the absolutely inspired word of God. It is plain to be seen, however, that these four gospels, and anything else in the bible, cannot be the word of God. Rather is the New Testament the word of the Roman Catholic church.

It is interesting to note that after these writings had been put into the canon or "scripture," a note was appended which read as follows—"If anyone teaches any other gospel than these four, let him be damned." In other words, the Roman church took four anonymous writings of its own manufacture, and told the world they were the "divinely inspired word of God." What they did not tell the world was the manner in which they were obtained, nor did they tell the world that these nameless and senseless writings are in the bible because animals have four legs. Ask your minister the next time you see him if he knows that the reason we have four

Let's Make Haste ~

AS I write this to you today, November 16th, word has just come over the radio that the Germans have shot 9 Czech college students to a miserable and untimely death. They attempted to explain their mad act, but all the explaining the German nation can do, can never satisfactorily explain such brutality. There is no explanation for it except the explanation that the whole German people are in the hands of a few brutal madmen. And as long as this condition exists, brutal massacres like this will occur. And they will get worse. The poor Czech nation is suffering under the brutal heel of Hitler and his gang, and those poor Czechs will continue to suffer until this man and his ilk are brought to time.

I have repeatedly stated, and shall repeatedly state over and over again, that it will take more than a human Power to bring this madman to his knees. As I said in my telegram to him not long ago—"You are fighting now against the Spirit of God, and that makes your defeat certain." Yet how speedy and how complete could the defeat of this murderer be if those who claim to be "ambassadors of God" here in free America really knew something of the Power of God instead of knowing so much about ancient and pagan religious superstitions? With all due respect to all of them, I make the statement now that unless someone, who actually knows the Power of God and believes in the present existence of the Realm of God takes definite action, this regime, under which the German people, as well as other people, suffer, might very easily annihilate every peace-loving individual and nation from off the face of the earth.

I cannot help but write and write and write against the sham which,

Questions and Answers

Ques. I received the literature you sent me and I am wondering, since Jesus is the medium through which man can approach God, how you can talk with God since you do not accept him as having died for your sins, etc.?

Ans. God never placed any limitations on Himself, by providing that no one can talk with God unless he do it through someone else. You say that Jesus is the only one through whom we can come to God. But the Hindoo, worth just as much in the sight of God as you are worth, says Christna is the only one through whom we can come to God. And by the way, the Hindoo had your complete story 1400 years before the time of Christ. And every one of the eleven major systems of religion in the world today claims that THEIR definition of God is the only true one. Only through THEIR church, or THEIR "crucified god" can man ever know God. My sister, when God gets ready to talk to you, you had better listen for God is perfectly able to talk directly to you, and you are also very able to talk with God, without going through any "crucified god" advocated by ANY system of theology. To believe as you do, limits God to the dogmas of the Christian church. That is a very narrow conception. Besides, it is not true.

Ques. My husband left me for another woman. I have three small children to support. I love my husband but he does not care for me as he is going with this other woman. Can the God-Law get him back again to me?

Ans. The God-Law, or the Spirit of God, exists for YOUR complete protection. There is no circumstance, nor any set of circumstances, which can harm you or yours, IF YOU RECOGNIZE THE SPIRIT OF GOD—IN YOU. Your domestic problem is your own. I cannot advise. I do know that in GOD, you have the answer. The Realm of the Spirit of God is of far more importance than a husband. Stay close to God, talk with God, and that Great Spirit will lead you aright.

Ques. You are Satan in human form. You are driving souls into a flaming hell by denying Jesus. What will happen to your soul when you die?

Ans. That's the funny part of it. I'm never going to die. I have eternal life through the Spirit of Eternal Life—IN ME. What happens to the body, I am not interested in. If hell is as hot as you evidently think it is, this old body of mine won't last very long in it. When the Spirit of God is recognized in the life, THAT LIFE NEVER DIES. Jesus has nothing whatsoever to do with that inner life which is God. Better read "Gleams over the Horizon." $3.00, Moscow. Postage paid.

Ques. Why don't you get after Pegler if you are not a racketeer? Are you afraid to?

Ans. Just one thing matters here, Mr. White, and that one thing is not Pegler. Our duty is to bring to this world, the glad tidings of the present existence of the Spirit of God. What others say, or think, we are not interested in. The more they talk the more sure are we that we are doing a good job. If no one ever "knocked" me, I should know I was doing nothing for humanity or God. Now they knock, so that's O. K.

Ques. Will the day come when nobody will ever die?

Ans. Depends upon what you mean by "nobody." "No body?" Man never dies now, if that is what you mean. He cannot die, because man, in his invisible self—IS GOD. If you mean shall the body of man live forever—that's a long time, and I cannot conceive of anything physical or material living forever. No—you won't live forever as a body. But, in the fullness of time, when man knows who God is to the very full, you won't want to ever live again physically. That which is of God—is SPIRIT, IT IS GOD. That which is flesh—is flesh, and while God can, and does LIVE IN YOUR BODY OF FLESH WHILE YOU MANIFEST AS A PHYSICAL BODY, flesh, as such, does not belong in the Realm of the Spirit of God. Better recognize that Spirit here and now, forgetting completely the "body." It doesn't mean much.

under the garb and name of God, tells us that while it knows all about God, it still is impotent to do anything at all to help stop these mad and fearful conditions in the world today. All religious organizations stand indicted. They have an empty form of religion, and that's all they do have. They have no Power whatsoever, except perhaps over the fears and superstitions of some of their followers. No Power to demonstrate to others. Oh yes—they are "ordained by God"—they tell us, but what do they know of the Power of the Spirit of God to stop this ghastly war? Or do they think that God cannot do that? To be sure, they can tell you all about "washing away your sins." They can tell you all about "how to escape purgatory or hell-fire." They can tell you that Jesus Christ ordained their first original leader, and they can call all other religions "heretic," but I'm asking once more—what can this or any other religious organization do to manifest and demonstrate the Power of the Spirit of God on this earth, here and now?

They, in turn, might reply to me—"What do you know about it"? Well, I have never laid claim to know too much about the Power of the Spirit of God, but I can show more than 150,000 pieces of evidence that God Almighty, through one lone man (and a poor one at that), can manifest His Spirit on this earth here and now. There is not a religious organization in existence that can show such a record as that, regardless of how "divine" it may be, or regardless of how many "followers" it has, or regardless of how long it has been in existence. If one little man can, through the mail alone, in ten short years, make the demonstrations of the Power of God we have been able to make, what could the combined church organizations do if they, too, possessed in their lives and doctrines, the literal Power of the Spirit which is God? They could stop this war awfully fast. The Power of the Spirit of God, manifesting in human lives, is now holding this man Hitler back. What could happen if all members of all religious organizations exchanged their pagan idols for the sweet, simple, sacred truths of God? The world has wondered why Mr. Hitler did not make his "lightning thrust" which he promised so faithfully he would make. Well, he may never make it at all. I am sure he would not make it if those who profess God, but who do not know God, really knew Him.

Let's make haste, beloved. Things are perilous. Human beings are afraid for what is coming on this earth. All the Satanic power of those opposed to God is dwelling in this madman Hitler. And only the Power of the Spirit of God can stop him. So then, shall we not begin to exchange ideas of a dead, crucified god for the living Power of a Living God? Shall we not begin to cast off "churchism" or "churchianity" and give God credit for being actually and literally able to overcome the forces of evil with the forces of good? Why not put God to the test? Let's get off some of those black robes. Let's forget all about "absolution of sins." Let's forget all about the "confession box" and the "Lord's Supper" and the "sawdust trail." Those theories and rituals belong to the dark ages. They do not belong here in free God-loving America. They are all utterly useless when it comes to saving this world

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth, and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

gospels is because animals have four legs, and see what he says.

Ask him where the titles to these four gospels came from, and ask him to produce the proof that they were written by the men whose names they bear. The Roman Catholic church states, in its Catholic encyclopedia, that these titles were supplied by the Catholic church itself. Outside of these four gospels not one single reference to Jesus Christ is to be found anywhere. Historians, living at that time, and on the very spot where these miraculous things are supposed to have taken place, and writing religious history of those lands in detail, never even heard of Jesus Christ or any of the supposedly miraculous things attributed to the man. Think that over. For Jesus most certainly is not an historical character. History never heard of him. What he is, and all he is, is a traditional character of the Roman Catholic church.

There is no evidence that he ever lived at all. There are ten other major systems of religion on this earth today, some of them far older and much larger than Christianity, yet none of them ever heard of Jesus Christ and none of them make the slightest mention of his name anywhere. It is safe then to assume that the only reference to Jesus Christ there is, is in the traditions of the Christian church, and, knowing the origin of those traditions, I know their falsity. The entire story of Jesus Christ is the story of Jeseus Chrishna of India told again. The great difference lies in the fact that the "crucified god" Chrishna of India, lived 1400 years before the "crucified god" Jesus Christ lived, if at all.

Both were born of virgins, and the names of the virgins were the same. Both were born on the 25th day of December. Both were God. Both came to save the world from sin, and both landed on a cross. Both preached to the spirits in hell, both rose again on the third day, both ascended into heaven, and both made "atonement" for the sins of the world—this in accordance with the traditions of the two systems of religion. But the Hindoo "crucified god" had appeared 1400 years before the Christian "crucified god" had appeared. Let me give you a few more facts which are much more than coincidence. The first man in the Hindoo "bible" was Noe—in the Christian bible he was Noah. Noe had, like Noah, three sons, and their names were Sherma, Hama, and Jiapheta. Noah's three sons were called Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Quite a coincidence this.

As a matter of fact, every fundamental doctrine of Christianity was known to the religion of India, 1400 years before either Christ or the Christian church was ever heard of. If this be a fact, and if the Hindoo religion is a "pagan" system of religion, as we are asked to believe by the Christian church, then does it not follow that if the one is "pagan" so is the other one? I think it does. For if every fundamental doctrine of Christianity was know to millions of people thousands of years before Christ, then away over the dam go all Christian claims for originality, and possibly truth. There were not two gods. Oh—there may have been two "crucified gods." All right, in fact, there were about 32 of them—but not a single one of them was the True God of this universe. All these "crucified gods" really were church-made originations of the various churches. They did not exist in reality or in truth.

Of course, this leaves us here in America with millions of poor trusting souls who wend their weary way every Sunday to church with a bible under their arms. They think they are doing as they should do. They really believe that they are worshipping God Almighty, the Great Creator of this universe. Let me assure them they are not. Let me assure them that all they are doing is following in the wake of a system of theology, absolutely unprovable, and an origination in its entirety of the Roman Catholic church in the 15th century. Why, even the virgin-birth was not introduced until the 12th century, and that has been a bone of contention ever since. It took the Roman Catholic church 1500 years to decide what the "word of god" is, and then, when 180 Catholic bishops had voted on the question, they refused to even let their own followers read what they had written. Yet Protestants are foolish enough to read it and to take it as truth.

Every Protestant minister who has graduated from any sort of a theological seminary, will be glad to prove the statements I have made in this article. If he should not know these facts, any large public library will supply them. For they are available. It is a pity that this world ever heard that story. It is my duty, as Founder of the Movement through which the Spirit of God is manifesting on this earth, to bring these truths to the entire human race. For when the fallacy of such foolish and untrue caricatures of God Almighty is exposed, the world can then come to know the fullness of the existing Power of the Spirit of God, and, of course, that Power the Christian church knows nothing about, for the simple reason it has never had an opportunity to know of it. It has staked its all on the "virgin-birth" and the divinity of Jesus Christ. It made a grievous mistake when it did that, and if you think it did not, then take a look at the world around us and tell me if you think any church organization, Catholic or Protestant, has brought to the world the truths of the Spirit of God.

All they have done, and they have failed in that, is to bring to this world a church-made system of theology which has no more truth in it than has the story of Little Red Riding Hood. The day is dawning, however, in which a new conception of God is being brought to earth. Now, men and women may know the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God, and may actually and literally know this Power without even going inside a church and without believing one thing the church teaches. That is as it should be. Things are moving very rapidly today. And it will not be long until these pagan ideas of God which the church teaches are once and for all driven out, and when that day comes, man will be completely liberated, because he will know, for the first time in history, the actual presence of the Spirit of God living on the earth with man. Anything short of this is not true religion. Let us look forward to that day. It is not too far off.

"Leave the matter of religion to the family altar, the church, and the private school, supported entirely by private subscriptions; keep the church and the state forever apart."—U. S. Grant. Amen, say we.

Complete Victory

There can be nothing but an overwhelming victory in any life which recognizes the Power of the Spirit of God in that life. The one object of this Movement is to call attention to that staggering fact. When it is universally recognized, I promise you this world will change. There will be no more wars, strikes, unrest, whiskey drinking or anything else which is detrimental to man. Instead, there will be eternal life, eternal peace and joy, and all these things will come simply because man is, for the first time in history, beginning to know the fact that there is an understandable God, and that he can understand and use the Power of that God. Naturally, soaked in church superstition as the world is, it will take a bit of time before the race throws away the pagan pictures of God which the different "religions" have taught. But that day will come. For the Power of the Spirit of God has always lived in man, and has always been available to all men. The reason men did not know that fact, is because another picture of God was advanced by those who, on nothing more than their own say-so, attempted to lead the world to God, when they never even faintly suspected who and what God really was. What these "religions" have actually done, is to cook up a god of their own, offer that god to the world in the place of the True Life-Spirit, and, as might be supposed, the world has rejected every such god offered to it.

If the True Spirit of God had ever been known on this earth, there would be no such problems as those confronting humanity today. The cause of all the strife and unrest in the world is the absence of God. What has been offered to the world as being "of God" by the religions of the world, is not of God. It is of them. They made these theories. God never did. For the Great Spirit of God existed long before man was ever on this earth, and no church theory, regardless of what it is, comes from God. When you and I realize that, we will naturally turn to the Spirit of God—in us. Then there, in us, we find that Great Peace and that Great Power which is the Spirit of God. It exists nowhere else. You don't find it by the "mass" or the "eucharist" or the "altar" or the "penitent form" or the "prayer-meeting." You do find it—in you. Then never let up till you actually know the Power of the Spirit of God, and manifest that Power for complete victory.

Radio

Requests for information regarding our radio programs continue to come in to us. We have made no arrangements for any radio broadcasting for the future. Radio is so cluttered up these days, and the results are so uncertain that we are confining all our advertising appropriations to newspapers and magazines. This appropriation for the coming year will be the largest we have ever spent. It will, however, all go into printers' ink, not the radio.

War and ill-will inhabit Christendom today. Yet it is called "Christendom" in memory of one of a score of "crucified gods" who came to "redeem" mankind. What a sham most so-called "religion" really is.

"Ye Men of Athens"

I have just completed and sent to the printer the manuscript of what I believe to be the most dynamic book I have ever written. It is based upon the need for the True God in a world which worships "an unknown god." It tells the story of the start and the amazing growth of this Movement. The book was written under the direct guidance of the Spirit of God, and I think this book will go round the world in record time.

I will personally autograph the first ten thousand copies to my Students. Copies to others cannot be autographed. I suggest you send in your order now. When the book is received from the printer, your autographed copy will be sent you.

Here is an amazing letter from San Jose, Calif. I used to "flunk" out at the County Hospital down there long, long ago. Then I had another job which was not so good. There was an old livery barn in San Jose run by a man called Hill. I was out of work and hit Mr. Hill up for a job. He sent me to a man named Davis and he made his living by collecting dead and dying horses and shipping them to Petaluma for "chicken feed." The job paid $2.50 a week and poor board. What a change since the Spirit of God came to me. Read this case which is one of the regular run of cases we receive here. It makes no difference what the physical disability may be, the Spirit of God IN YOU can remedy the damage done. God made that body—God can heal it. Here is the letter:

"Dr. Frank B. Robinson,
Moscow, Idaho.

Dear Dr. Robinson:

"Am now studying my fifteenth lesson in 'Psychiana.' Just after writing the above line I paused and dwelt long and intently on the changes that have come into my life since first I saw your advertisement. Then—I was worried and discouraged over a crippled spine that seemed likely to cripple me for life. I had spent much money and time with the drugless physicians—essayed calisthenics that were little short of agony, in a desperate attempt to correct a condition that had made my life not worth living for four years.

"When I read your free lecture, I said: 'That man's got the solution to my difficulty.' And I was just as sure of it as of anything in my life.

"When studying your second Lesson, the lameness left me entirely, and now it is hard to realize that I ever had such grief, for my spine is as supple as when I was a child.

"I think you are doing a wonderful work for humanity, Dr. Robinson, and I hope you have years and years ahead of you in which to 'carry on.'

Sincerely your student,
J. S."

The last letter reproduced here was the case of a crippled spine. This is an eye case. But it made no difference to the Spirit of God what sort of a case it was. I think Constantine, who founded the Christian church, would turn over in his grave if he knew what is being done through the Power of the Spirit of God now. Thanks for the letter, Mrs. Smith:

"Lesson Five reached me last Monday. To date I can say the results are 100 per cent.

"My left eye was so weak that I was in need of glasses, and my right ear was almost void. Both of these members have been restored. I have had stomach and intestinal trouble since childhood and it has been more than a month since I threw the medicine bottle away.

"Truly, I never knew such health and happiness could exist.

"A few days ago I wrote my sister at Los Angeles urging her to send for the Advanced Course without hesitation or fail. This expresses my opinion much better than I could do otherwise.

"I am all for 'Psychiana' and am studying hard each day."

Mrs. Hanna, of Ohio, writes:

"I am happy to tell you that I have found, through 'Psychiana' the peace which passeth all understanding. I look for my Lessons as letters from a dear friend, study them quietly as you suggested each day, and get a new thrill each time I do so."

Thank you, Mrs. Hanna—wherever the Spirit of God is found by anyone, the first thing they write us is that they have found a "peace which passeth all understanding." Only the Spirit of God can bring such a peace as that. And it is certainly a wonderful peace. I have known it for quite some years, and I understand how you feel. Tell others about it.

From Mr. Bahl in the British West Indies comes this letter:

"Allow me to thank you ever so much for the very many experiences I have had since I started my studies with you. My whole life has changed. I have become more self-confident. I now know who and what God is, where God is, and now I can say that I do enjoy my happy moments with God."

Yes—you do enjoy such moments with God. So do I. As a matter of fact, after a while this new experience will seem quite commonplace with you, and the Power you are just now discovering, well—you will live in that Power and will be a wonderful overcomer in life. I send you my very kindest thoughts away out there where you are.

From Eva Plumlee in Oklahoma comes this inspiring letter:

"I am sure you hear this from every letter, but I will never be able to thank you enough for bringing this message to all of us. I cannot express myself enough to tell you how grateful I am. I am very happy to be even in a small way connected with this organization. It means much to me."

Here is a passage from the rejected books of the Christian bible. When the Catholic bishops and priests had their great pow-wow in Trent in the year 1545 A.D., they voted into the Christian bible four books now known as "gospels." These traditional writings are the only place where there is any record of Jesus Christ, and they are probably "phoney." But let us take one story from the books these priests rejected, and let us note that although the "vote" did not admit them to the New Testament, they are just as authentic as those which won on the ballot. And none of them are authentic because no original MS of them has ever been known to exist. In other words, we accept the story utterly without evidence. Had Jesus Christ been Almighty God, there would have been lots of evidence to prove it. As it is, there is none, and there never has been any. Here is the story as I copy it word for word from these "rejected" books, voted out because "the people might not believe them."

"After a few days, a certain young man was cleaving wood in the corner, and the axe fell and cut asunder the sole of his foot; and losing all his blood, he died. There was a clamor and a crowd, and the child Jesus ran thither, and by force he took hold of the dead man that was wounded in the foot, and straightway he was healed (brought to life again). Then Jesus said to the young man, 'Rise now, cleave the wood, and remember me;' and the crowd, who saw what was done, worshipped the Child saying, 'Truly the Spirit of God dwelleth in this child.' You must remember here that this is supposed to be a picture of Almighty God, who, for countless millions of years, has been bringing this celestial sphere into being. Yet, we are asked to believe this idiotic story that is told about Great Almighty God. Those books, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, which did sneak into the "canon" by Catholic vote, are equally as idiotic as is this story. The Spirit of God is not in such stories, I assure you. Leave them alone.

Consciousness

Someone once said the "consciousness" of man is God. No, it is not. If it were, when a general anaesthetic is administered, God goes, because one loses consciousness. All consciousness does is to make you conscious of the Spirit of God—in you. Man is the only creation which can consciously comprehend the fact that God lives in him. But do not say that God is consciousness, for that is not true. Rather use your consciousness to understand the Spirit of God in you.

All the externals which we see and which we call religion, amount to just nothing at all. It is the internal experience which counts. The Spirit of God in us.

from the present demonstrating mad-man.

I was in Seattle yesterday. I overheard a couple of priests discussing an article about "Psychiana" and myself which appeared in the last issue (Nov. 13th) of "Newsweek," the large-circulating and popular news magazine. Little did they suspect that the man they were discussing was sitting on the davenport of that hotel lobby, taking it all in. One said to the other—"It's about time this fellow was silenced—isn't it?" To which the other replied—"I understand a move is on foot to put him out of the picture once and for all." Now, just what is meant by that remark I do not know, though I may suspect. It was interesting to hear two priests talking like that, though. But even if it were possible to get me out of the picture, that would only strengthen this Movement. I tell this little incident while it is fresh in my mind, and to show you how "god" through his "agents" works when truths of God come from other quarters.

But let's make haste, beloved. Let's get this knowledge of the Power of the Spirit of God around the world as fast as we possibly can. For it is the only Power which can bring the forces of darkness, murder, hate, lust, and atheism to their knees. Never mind worrying about me, as many Students seem to be doing. I have absolute and complete confidence in God. And if I'm right, if I speak truly, if my own life is right, and if God is speaking through this Movement, no one has anything to fear. For such a Movement and such a man cannot be moved. He is protected by God, and the truth such a man writes and speaks will inevitably and invariably win. Make no mistake about that. Those who masquerade under the cloak of God, Protestant and Catholic, must do something to demonstrate the Power of God, and they must do it fast. If they don't, someone else will. Parading around town in a black robe or with a collar buttoned backward will not save this world. Forgiving or absolving "sins" will not save this world. Chanting a "mass" or baptis-ing a repentant "sinner" can do nothing to stop this Hitler and his ilk. It will take the Power of God to do that, and the Power of God does not manifest through such rituals as these. My heart bleeds for the world today. My heart bleeds for the church today. What a ghastly failure it is. What a thing to be pitied it is. And here is the world, destruction threatening on every hand, and there is the so-called "divine" church, and not a single thing can it do to manifest the Power of the Spirit of God on this earth. What sort of a god has the church gotten itself hold of anyhow? For God's sake, for the sake of peace, and for the sake of humanity, let all who profess the name of God, and all who make a living preaching God, either demonstrate the Spirit of God here on earth, or let them admit that their god cannot do a single thing to help world conditions.

There is only one God. That God is an invisible creative Spirit of all Life. If that God cannot operate and manifest through the present church organizations, they should step out of the way and turn their buildings over to someone through whom God can manifest His Power. Don't you think so? Certainly you do. Yet do they do that? You know the answer. If it should be that these war-mad forces succeeded, they will succeed in spite of those religious organizations which, parading around in a uniform supposed to represent an "agent of God," tell us "there is no other god than ours." That's what they all say. Think of it. More than a score of "crucified gods" already, and still the earth is on the road to hell and destruction. Let's change these "crucified gods" for a Living God who is too big to allow anyone to crucify Him. Let's make haste. Let's give the God of all mankind credit for being able to bring eternal peace to this earth. For God will do that just as fast as He can find men and women who will give Him credit for still living, not for being dead.

And the god of some churches I know is as dead as a mackerel. A dead god can do nothing at all; but a Living God can; and it is a Living God we of "Psychiana" teach. If God was crucified on this earth once, He may be crucified again. If God failed to save man by that crucifixion, and He evidently did, He may fail again. So then, let's make haste and change the "crucified god" for One too big for that. Let's forget these old pagan religious superstitions, and let's all, definitely and positively, give God credit for being able, now, through you and me, to bring peace to this war-torn world.

73 Countries Now

A recent check-up showed Students in 73 different countries. While the war is on, and the foreign mails disrupted, we have had to stop our advertising in foreign countries. That will be started again just as soon as the war is over and conditions become normal again. Too bad this war had to come. Just as soon as men and women learn the truths of God as we here in Moscow, Idaho, are teaching those truths, there will be no war. For no man wants to fight, and the few insane maniacs like Hitler and Stalin can be speedily dispensed with.

What has become of the travelling "evangelists" of a few years ago? Or is their theology out of date? Recently I heard a big churchman say he would not allow the world's greatest evangelist in his church. Neither would I. He might corrupt it.

Progressing Rapidly

Quite often, after a busy day in my study, I come home, sit down, and think over the progress being made by this Movement. As the letters flood in from all over the nation, telling us of the joys, etc., the new conception of God brings to all who find God, there comes a sense of excusable satisfaction. For this is a satisfying work with a vengeance. I have often tried to picture all of my Students at one time, in different parts of the earth, all enjoying the Peace and Power this new conception of God is bringing to them. It's quite a job. There, a newspaper reporter. Somewhere else, a banker. Then, a housewife, and so on, many times multiplied.

The revolutionary character of the "Psychiana" Movement is being rapidly recognized by those who are teaching "orthodoxy" and the stupendous import of what it means is beginning to be realized all over this country. Of course, many amazing things are yet to be seen. For when the American people really awaken to the fact that they may find the Power of the Spirit of God any time they want to, that will really bring in a day the like of which this world has never before seen. There is only one thing for you all to do. That is to spread the good news as rapidly as you possibly can spread it. Be ever ready for a call to service. Send us as many names of interested people as you can, and, above all, keep the Power of the Spirit of God rapidly flowing through you. For it is by the increase of the Power of the Spirit of God this Movement will finally come to the place in which it can lead the entire world away from pagan teachings and into the pure Light of the Realm of the Spirit of God.

I don't believe that day is very far off. The next five years should bring it in. Don't argue religion with anyone. Just quietly tell them of the Power which is attending this Movement, and speak quietly to those you come in contact with, and tell them that all the Power of the Realm of the Spirit of God is available to them any time they care to have it. You might tell them that the Spirit of God actually lives in them. The Movement cannot be hurried. It will go along progressing just as fast as it should progress, and soon, some day, it will begin to sweep the world in numbers, and the greatest Spiritual Awakening the world has ever known will be here. From that time on, God and man will live together on this earth in perfect peace and understanding, and your Founder then can fade out of the picture. So then, let me feel that all of you, tens and hundreds of thousands of you, are ready, with your lamps trimmed and burning, for the Great Day of God which will come in just as soon as men and women know that the Spirit of God is moving on the earth through this "Psychiana" Movement. May the Spirit of Infinite Peace be with you all.

Double Life

The life lived with the conscious recognition of the Power of the Spirit of God in it is sort of a double life. By that I mean it is a combination of the spiritual and physical. We are conscious of both lives in us at the same time. The theory has been advanced that there must be a constant "war" going on between the spirit and the flesh, but this is not true. There need be no such war. Whichever of these two existences takes the lead, it rules the other one. For instance, if you allow the consciousness of the Spirit of God in you to take the helm, then naturally everything you do will be done "in the Spirit" and will be of God. If, on the other hand, you forget your Guest, and cater exclusively to the physical, that will take the lead, but the Spiritual will not follow. The proper procedure as long as you manifest on this earthly plane is to join both physical and spiritual together. Recognize the spiritual as the controlling Power, and then, consciously and willingly allow the physical to follow. Then there will be no war. For the flesh does NOT war against the Spirit, nor does the Spirit "war" against the flesh. The ideal situation is for these two to work together. This brings complete victory over all conditions of life.

This business of saving our religion for Sunday is all wrong. Many people use religion like china. They get it out on Sunday, and on Sunday night they wrap it up and put it away for another week.

The Silence

There continually comes to me this question—"Shall I go into the silence?" The answer is "No." When I give that answer I mean by "silence" the period of mental stress recommended by the various Yogic philosophies, and by some systems of "new thought." These folks recommend the sitting erect and the clasping tight of the hands, etc. This is wrong. It should never be done. When you desire to "sit in the silence," let it be quite natural and easy. All it should ever be is the quiet natural relaxing of the body. Turn the mind then inwards and allow it to dwell on the indwelling Spirit of God. Just a quiet relaxation is all it is. Nothing unusual or unnatural. When thus at rest, just quietly talk with God, recognizing the magnitude of the Power of the Spirit of God in you. As you dwell upon that Great Spirit, you will feel its Power permeating your very soul. There will come to you a consciousness of the place at which you meet God. Then rest quietly there for maybe fifteen minutes or half an hour. But let it be quite a natural rest. You cannot find the consciousness of the Spirit of God by exercises any more than you can by "eating the flesh and drinking the blood of Jesus" at the Lord's Supper table. Both are impossible and impotent exercises.

The Convention

We have no further news to give you regarding our national convention yet. We shall notify you all by mail and through the Weekly when it will be held and where. I am in correspondence with the Stevens Hotel in Chicago, but have nothing definite to offer yet. Trouble with me is that I have too much work for one man to do, but I like it though. It's a grand work, to be sure.

What's the use of a thousand dollar bill in your pocket if you don't know you have it? And what's the use of the Spirit of God dwelling in you if you never use it? Don't be foolish; know God is there in you, and use God. That Spirit never fails.

The smartest thing you can ever do is to confide in God. When you do that your confidence is honored by the Spirit of God respecting that confidence, and bringing to you more than you have ever imagined you could have.
